[redacted] is aware of the court judgment to which you refer.
 He has been encouraged to contact you in regard to making a settlement.
 As indicated to Congressman Howard, however, we cannot take more direct steps. The law excludes garnishment of wages for amounts awarded by a court in connection with a property settlement. I suggest you consult your legal advisers on this matter.

Re att'd letter from former spouse of

--as I am sure you will recall, this office responded to Rep. Howard (cy att'd, FYI) on behalf of this constituent and now the constituent is writing directly to us. Since we do not correspond directly to constituents, and since this letter did not come through Rep. Howard's office, I am forwarding it to you for whatever action you deem necessary. Please let me know what course of action you take in the event Rep. Howard's office contacts us again. Thank you.

(FYI--you are probably already aware, however,

is no longer in this office.

Director, External Affairs Staff, is the individual who now receives and signs the letters relating to Congressional correspondence relating to constituent inquiries.)

If I can be of assistance, please call.
